

Community Ambassador

Application instructions: Attend webinar

West Tenth is a marketplace where you can find all the best local services and custom goods for home and family life. Whether you're looking for a unique gift or skilled services, there's likely someone on West Tenth who bakes it, makes it, photographs it, designs it, organizes it, or does it.

West Tenth is a VC- backed startup, completed a Techstars Accelerator program in 2020, and has been highlighted in Forbes, Tech Crunch, and Crunchbase. We're currently expanding throughout Southern California, Salt Lake City, Phoenix, Austin, San Antonio, Houston, Dallas, Tampa, and other communities around the US.

Looking for extra income by supporting women entrepreneurs, working from home with no set schedule & using your knowledge of social media? Welcome to West Tenth! Our mission is to enable women to turn their talents into businesses run from the home and to give our communities a better way to access them. We know that women turn to entrepreneurship when traditional employment fails to recognize their value or can't give them the flexibility they need. West Tenth exists to support them and help their home businesses thrive. Learn more about our mission here.

We're hiring part-time Community Ambassadors to help us expand West Tenth. Your responsibilities for this role include the following:

- Promote West Tenth to new customers
- Post and comment about West Tenth in online community or networking groups
- Host local events to promote brand awareness with new customers
- Attend monthly training meetings

Basic Qualifications:

- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Self-starter with ability to think of creative ideas and solutions

West Tenth does not sponsor for immigration, including for H-1B, TN, and other non-immigrant visas, for this role.
